UCI Celebrates its 50th Anniversary

October 4, 2015 will mark 50 years since UCI’s first day of classes. A series of celebratory activities have been held in the months and years leading up to the milestone. The official anniversary celebration began with UCI’s 2014 Commencement festivities in June 2014, coinciding with the 50th anniversary of the campus site dedication. President Lyndon B. Johnson provided the keynote address at the 1964 dedication. The keynote at the June 14, 2014 commencement celebration – which took place at Angel Stadium of Anaheim - was provided by President Barack Obama.

Introduction

Fifty years ago, our founding chancellor, Daniel Aldrich Jr., and President Lyndon B. Johnson dedicated the site of the University of California, Irvine, with the goal that one day it would be a world-class university. Today, that vision is realized in myriad faculty, student, and alumni achievements that are illuminating new possibilities in our state and around the globe.

UC Irvine has been named the top university in the nation under 50 years old for four years in a row. We are consistently among the world’s best, with national rankings and achievements in the sciences, arts, humanities, medicine, and management. Three UC Irvine professors have won Nobel Prizes for their contributions to the advancement of human knowledge. Our alumni have won Pulitzer Prizes and Olympic medals, and are leaders in business, the arts, science, and education. In all walks of life, graduates from UCI make a difference.

Our campus has all the advantages of a large, dynamic research university, with many opportunities for students to be involved in undergraduate research. By the time they are seniors, 91 percent of UCI students have participated in faculty research. And with the circular layout of our campus surrounding beautiful Aldrich Park, our tight-knit community thrives with the friendly feel of a small college. Our academics and community combine to create an exceptional undergraduate experience. UC Irvine draws students looking for world-class faculty, cutting-edge academic programs, award-winning housing and facilities, a vibrant campus life, and the opportunity to live and study among the best and brightest minds in academia.

UCI is the ideal place to study the past, enjoy the present, and shape our future. I invite you to explore all we have to offer and challenge yourself to shine brighter.

Sincerely,

Howard Gillman
Chancellor

All freshmen applicants must submit college admission test scores from the SAT or the ACT Plus Writing.

Submission of SAT Subject Test scores is not required, but may add positively to the review of a student’s application. For more information, see the UCI general catalog at catalogue.uci.edu.

International Applicants
International applicants should also visit www.admissions.uci.edu/prospective_international for information about admission requirements specifically for students living outside of the U.S.

Prospective Transfers
www.admissions.uci.edu, admission.universityofcalifornia.edu

UCI is committed to providing educational excellence and a vibrant campus life for transfer students. We welcome the distinctive experience transfer students contribute to our campus.

Basic UC Transfer Requirements

• 60 semester or 90 quarter UC transferable units with a minimum 2.4 GPA (2.8 for non-California residents); however, a competitive UC Irvine transfer applicant should have a UC transferable GPA of 3.0 or above.
• All 60 semester or 90 quarter UC transferable units must be completed by spring 2016.
• Complete the following seven transferable college courses (with a grade of a C or better in each course):
  - Two UC transferable courses in English composition
  - One UC transferable course in mathematical concepts and quantitative reasoning
  - Four UC transferable courses chosen from at least two of the following areas: the arts and humanities, the social and behavioral sciences, or the physical and biological sciences
Transfer Credit Limitation
Students will be granted up to 70 semester/105 quarter units of credit for lower division coursework completed at any institution or any combination of institutions. For units beyond the maximum, subject credit may be granted and used to satisfy requirements. Units earned through AP, IB, and/or A-Level examinations are not included in the limitation and do not put applicants at risk of being denied admission. Units earned at any UC campus (Extension, summer, cross/concurrent and regular academic year enrollment) are not included in the limitation but are added to the maximum transfer credit allowed and may put applicants at risk of being denied admission due to excessive units. No more than 14 semester (21 quarter) units may be taken for Pass/No Pass credit (not major prerequisites). Grades earned in all UC transferable coursework are used in calculating the UC transferable GPA.

Requirements for Specific UCI Majors
In addition to meeting UC transfer eligibility requirements, students applying to UCI must also meet the requirements for their specific major. Please go to www.admissions.uci.edu/applicants/transfer_preparation.html to view the transfer admission requirements for your desired major.

International Applicants
International applicants should also visit www.admissions.uci.edu/prospective_international for information about admission requirements specifically for students living outside of the U.S.

Selection Criteria for Prospective UCI Transfer Students
Highest priority for admission is given to California resident junior-level applicants from California Community Colleges. Preference will also be given to community college students who have participated in academically selective honors courses or programs. Junior-level transfer applicants from four-year colleges may be considered as space permits.
• Academic achievement and performance, and personal accomplishment, potential, and experience as assessed through a comprehensive review of all information provided on the application plus the following:
  - an exceptionally challenging curriculum
  - completion of required English composition and mathematics courses by the end of the spring term preceding enrollment at UCI
  - outstanding accomplishments relevant to academic aims
  - unusual circumstances or hardships the applicant has faced and the ways in which the applicant has responded to these challenges
  - a strong, thoughtful match between UCI’s programs and the applicant’s academic and career objectives, preparation, talents, and skills
  - potential contributions to the campus

In Your Own Words
Your personal statement should be exactly that — personal. This is your opportunity to tell us about yourself, your hopes, ambitions, life experiences and inspirations. We encourage you to take your time on this assignment. Be open, be reflective, and be honest. Your personal statement helps to provide context for the rest of your application.

Instructions for writing your personal statement:
• Respond to both prompts, using a maximum of 1,000 words total.
• You may allocate the word count as you wish. Your answers should be no fewer than 250 words.
• Write it yourself, but seek advice from a teacher or parent to see if the statement reflects you.
• Give yourself enough time to produce a thoughtful and carefully composed personal statement.

Current Personal Statement Questions
Prompt One (freshman applicant): Describe the world you come from – for example, your family, community or school — and tell us how your world has shaped your dreams and aspirations.
Prompt One (transfer applicant): What is your intended major? Discuss how your interest in the subject developed and describe any experience you have had in the field — such as volunteer work, internships and employment, participation in student organizations and activities — and what you have gained from your involvement.
Prompt Two (all applicants): Tell us about a personal quality, talent, accomplishment, contribution or experience that is important to you. What about this quality or accomplishment makes you proud and how does it relate to the person you are?
Students demonstrating the need for financial assistance may be eligible for scholarships, grants, loans, and/or work-study. Scholarships can also be awarded on the basis of academic excellence.

Types of Financial Aid
- Grants are awarded on the basis of financial need and do not have to be repaid.
- Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic criteria, or any combination of academics, financial need, leadership positions, campus or community activities, and work experience. They are designed to reward, encourage, and assist you in pursuing academic excellence and leadership roles.
- Loans are money that must be repaid over a period of time, usually after you leave school.
- Work-study allows you to gain work experience and earn money to pay for a portion of your educational expenses by working a part-time job. Most jobs are on campus and departments are eager to hire students with work-study awards.

Please visit UCI’s Financial Aid and Scholarships website at www.ofas.uci.edu for detailed information about meeting the cost of your education.

* Federal student loans are available to most students regardless of income and provide a range of repayment options including income-based repayment plans and loan forgiveness benefits, which other education loans are not required to provide.
Applying for Scholarships
When you apply for admission to UCI, you are also applying for scholarships. You can be eligible automatically for certain scholarships because decisions are based on information provided in your UC Application. However, other scholarship opportunities may require you submit additional documentation.

Blue + Gold Opportunity Plan
www.universityofcalifornia.edu/blueandgold
UC’s Blue and Gold Opportunity Plan will cover your educational and student services fees if you are a California resident whose family earns less than $80,000 a year and you qualify for financial aid – and that’s just for starters. Blue and Gold students with sufficient financial need can qualify for even more grant aid to help reduce the cost of attending.

Free Application Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)  www.fafsa.gov
To obtain financial aid you must file a FAFSA. FAFSA is a free application to determine new and continuing students’ eligibility for financial assistance. On the application you will be required to answer numerous questions regarding your and your family’s assets, income, and dependency. It is helpful to have access to your and your family’s income tax returns, W-2 forms, and bank statements in order to complete the FAFSA application.

The UCI School Code is 001314 – you will need this code for the FAFSA application. Visit www.fafsa.gov for the application deadlines and details.
